VALUE FOR THE MONTH: PERSEVERING

THEME FOR THE WEEK: 'OTHERS HAVE SEEN WHAT IS, AND ASKED WHY. I HAVE SEEN WHAT COULD BE, AND ASKED WHY NOT? (PABLO PICASSO)

The weeks become busier and busier as we approach December and it is impressive how we manage to keep our studies going whilst taking advantage of opportunities for extra study, external visits and charitable work.

This week sees a 'Drop Day', educational visits and Remembrance Day commemorations involving most students in the school. Of course, the expectation will always be that students adhere to the Code of Expectations whether the activity is in class or not.

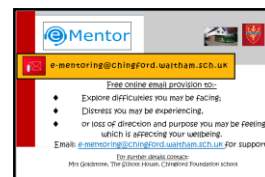

Mr Mahir

DROP DAY

- On Wednesday 9th November, students in Years 7, 8, 10 and 11 will be involved in drop day events of varying lengths during the morning. Students in Year 9 will be in normal lessons on this occasion. However, don't worry, you will be involved in the other three drop days this year when students in other years aren't involved.
- It is important that students in years 7, 8, 10 and 11 listen very carefully to the information about where to go and at what time, which your Form Tutor will tell you on Monday or Tuesday in registration
- Go to your venue promptly and wait outside until instructed by Chingford Foundation School staff
- Sit where you are told to sit.
- Ask questions at appropriate times, making full use of the expertise of the speakers.
- Of course, the usual high standards of behaviour which we always expect will be expected on this day.

Students in all years must remember that when you aren't in drop day events, you will be in normal lessons. Occasionally, this means a room change or sharing a classroom with some students from another group. Your Form Tutor will have informed you of this. Please be very sensible.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Please be thinking about all those who have made sacrifices for all of us during our two minute silence on Friday 11 November at 10.58 am.

GCSE - COMMUNITY LANGUAGES

If any pupils are interested in being entered privately for a GCSE in a community language (e.g. a language spoken at home) please see Mrs Cole, Examinations Officer, Room 9 by 30th November. There will be private entry fees charged for these qualifications. Please note we cannot offer entry to all languages/qualifications as some include coursework or speaking units that cannot always be supported.
