VALUE FOR THE MONTH: PERSEVERING

THEME FOR THE WEEK: 'BELIEVE YOU CAN AND YOU'RE HALFWAY THERE' (THEODORE ROOSEVELT)

I have attended several wonderful events in the last week involving students. On Friday last I went along to watch a play, 'An Inspector Calls' with Year 11 students. On Saturday I went with a party of Year 10 students to Oxford for the day, and on Monday, I was present for the GCSE Presentation Evening for the Year 11 students who left in July.

Congratulations to all those students who captured the essence of what we are about as a school - ambitious, intelligent, caring and inquisitive. Remember to work hard and think big! Do not tolerate anyone who gets in the way of your work and your ambitions.

Well done to our Year 10 students who will be hosting the Senior Citizens' Party on Thursday.

FLAMENCO COMES TO CHINGFORD!

It was our pleasure to welcome back a Flamenco dancer and guitarist from the London based company "Ilusion Flamenca." They spoke to some Year 8 and 9 students about the history of flamenco dancing, gave a demonstration and by the end of the hour's workshop, all students were able to dance a routine made up of "Alegrias" and "Sevillanas," with lots of hand clapping, stomping of feet and shouts of "ole!"

We were very impressed with some of our students' ability, mature attitude and performance. Keep dancing!
