VALUE FOR THE MONTH: PERSEVERING

THEME FOR THE WEEK: 'YOU MUST FIND THE PLACE INSIDE YOURSELF WHERE NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE' (DEEPAK CHOPRA)

Thank you for a tremendous week's work. The work in class has been excellent and our scrutiny of your homework reveals your ambition to do well. It's a good time to reflect and give thanks to the army of people around you who make this possible.

During the day there are members of the 'Chingford Family' of staff who keep you warm, fed, informed and cared for beyond the outstanding work your teachers do for you in class. Those same people also give you an opportunity to shine.

I was proud of your efforts during the recent fund-raising activities for Haven House and even more so, for the Senior Citizens' Party which was an outstanding success. Well done and keep going for each other. The more we work together, the easier our dreams become.

Remember Respect, Responsibility, Leadership
