Week beginning Monday, 27 February 2017

VALUE FOR THE MONTH: TOLERANCE OF DIFFERENT FAITHS AND BELIEFS
THEME FOR THE WEEK: 'WE MAY HAVE DIFFERENT RELIGIONS, DIFFERENT LANGUAGES, DIFFERENT COLOURED SKIN, BUT WE ALL BELONG TO THE SAME HUMAN RACE' (KEN ADAMS)

Dear Students

Thank you for your support and behaviour during the Year 11 examinations. If we work together for each other then you will appreciate the standards when it is your own turn to sit these very important examinations.

Work in class is also very good and you are showing a really good attitude to your studies. This cannot be achieved without a positive attitude to learning. Well done.

This positive attitude in class cannot be applied to our observations of some students coming to and going from school. In the worst cases, local residents are complaining about the attitude and behaviour of students on local transport and in Station Road. We know when students behave badly and sometimes 'watching it' also means that you are condoning it. Be aware that we will be increasingly applying school sanctions to poor behaviour outside school.

What can the vast majority of us who don't get into much trouble do? I believe we can set ourselves high personal standards. Being a good role model means that we are ALWAYS punctual, impeccably dressed for work and properly equipped for school. It also means that we are personally ambitious for your school and that we shun and avoid those that bring your school and your ability to work well into disrepute.

Have a good week.

Mr Mahir
